Great

Expectations

During our years at Berlin High School we have been both the characters and the authors of a wonderful story, a true tale of victory and defeat, of friendship and scholarship, of laughter, tears, and of great expectations. But although our memories are forever bound between the covers of this book, we are not. Ours is a story whose ending has not yet been written.

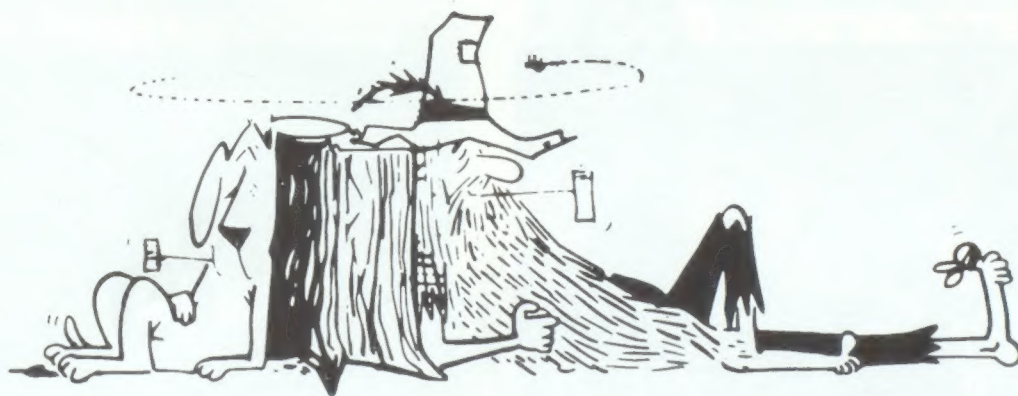

"We have had much more experience than we have written here, more than we will, more than we can write. In silence we must wrap much of our life, because it is too fine for speech, because also we cannot explain it to others, and because somewhat we cannot yet understand."

Ralph Waldo Emerson

Student Life

Spirit Week

Berlin High students exhibited their enthusiasm during Spirit Week, from Monday, Sept. 8 to Friday, Sept. 12, 1986. Seniors, Juniors, Sophomores, and Freshmen alike participated accordingly on Bum Day, Color Day, Decade Day, and Theme Day. At the Pep Rally, the fall sports' teams were introduced, in addition to performances by the band, colour guard, drill team, and cheerleaders. Following the introductions, the competitions commenced.

Using the theme "Senior Hall of Fame," the Class of '87 received its third consecutive trophy for the hallway competition. The Seniors were also victorious in the toilet paper wrapping, tug of war, and Spirit competitions. The Spirit Dance held Friday night and the varsity football team's triumph over Montville at Sage Park on Saturday afternoon were the highlights of the crazy, unforgettable week.

The 1986-1987 Berlin Redcoat Marching Band

Drum Major Bruce Springer
Band Director Paul Karam
Drum Major Scott Buckley

The Redcoat Marching Band enjoyed a busy and entertaining year. Led by Drum Majors Bruce Springer and Scott Buckley, the band performed at football games, the Chesire Band Competition, and at an April band convention in Virginia. The Colour Guard and Drill Team, led by Anna Ruscito and Sandy Leicach, and Audra Brandish and Pam Schubert respectively, made up the band's front at all performances. Musical routines included "Superman," "Airhead," "Birth of the Blues," and a Sousa medley.

This year's Band Officers include: Rocky Urso, President; Cheryl Slipski, First Vice President and Corinne Pawlicki, Second Vice President; Steve Ryba, Treasurer; and Meg Baker, Secretary.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

State Representative Loren Dickinson addressed National Honor Society members, inductees, and guests at the annual induction ceremony held at Berlin High School on January 16, 1987. Representative Dickinson recollected that, despite his missing Honor Society membership, he had always striven for excellence in his professional life. He encouraged his audience to put their demonstrated academic achievement to good use in their future lives by always working to realize their full potentials.

Cindy Kasulis, Honor Society President, preceded Representative Dickinson's address with a welcome to the assembly. After book awards and the candle lighting ceremony, the inductees, directed by advisor Thomas Warburton, were led in the Honor Society oath by Principal Thomas Galvin.

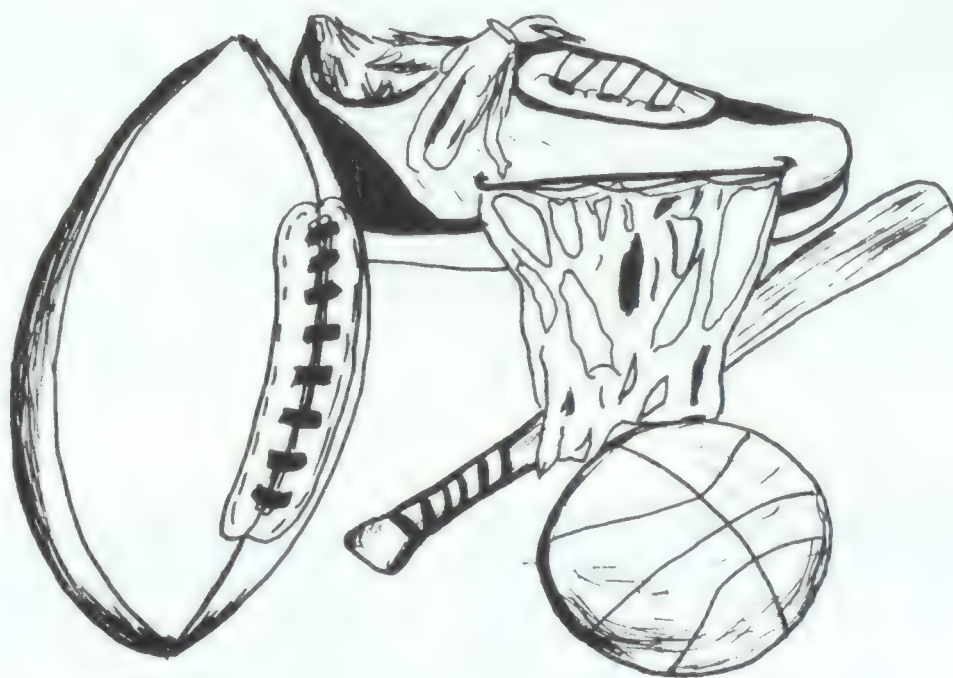

Superintendent of Schools L. L. Giandomenico followed Representative Dickinson with some closing remarks. A reception in the Berlin High Media Center immediately after the induction was enjoyed by all.

Sports

The 1986 Football Team

Tyrone takes a breather from the tough game.

The 1986 Berlin Football team enjoyed a winning season this year. This year's record of 9-2 overall, and 4-1 in the Northwest Conference matched the best record in Berlin football history.

Coach Al Pelligrinelli, and assistant coaches Nick Pepe, Bill Bacearo, Pat Phaup, and student coach Bob DeMuchio guided the team through a remarkable season. Captains Rocky Urso and Chris McHale, and seniors Jamie Dubuc, Dean Faucher, Dan Munson, Ed Rossy, Tim Dalena, and Bill Peckrul led the 1986 squad.

Quarterback Marc Carosielli had a great year, along with juniors Corey Talbot, Brian Mongillo, and sophomore Jay DelGrosso, who came off the bench.

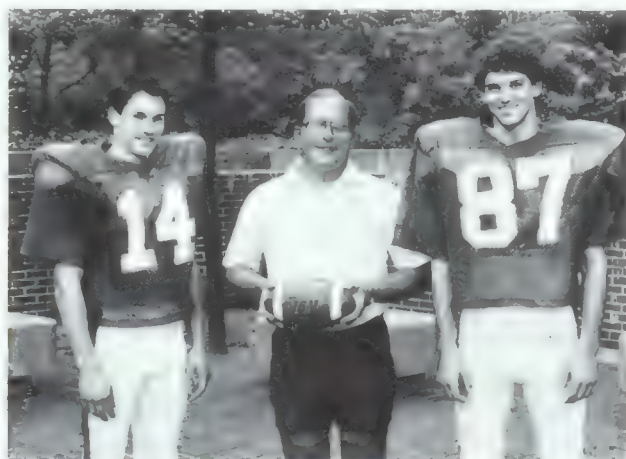

The team was co-holder of the Northwest Conference title along with Middletown High School.

A chain reaction sends the Avon player to the ground.

Marc Carosielli prepares to throw a pass.

"No problem! I've got it!"

"Well, I never!"

"It's mine and you can't have it!"

Co-captain Chris McHale

Coach tells them how it's done.

"But Coach, all my socks smell like this!"

Mark Carosielli walks off the field.

Coach P. calls the play.

"What are you looking at?"

Ed Rossy and Mike Giana

"Oh yeah!"

Rocky and Chris lead the team onto the field.

The Redcoat team is eager to start playing.

"Guys, we're a little behind."

Mean Dean disagrees with the call.

Vin Biscoglio is confident of a Redcoat win.

Ed Rossy heads for the endzone.

Senior co-captain Rocky Urso takes the ball down the sideline.

Seniors Rocky Urso and Jamie Dubuc clear the way for Chris McHale.

66 plus 13 plus "oops!" equals 87!!!

1986 Berlin Boys' Soccer Team

Todd Helmecki

The 1986 Redcoat Boys' Soccer team enjoyed a victorious season, playing to a 9-4-3 overall record and a 6-2-2 Northwest Conference posting.

Coach Robert Morell, assisted by Rick Hanbury and Gene Morris, directed the young team, which was led by captains John Morell and Paul Violette.

Captains Morell and Violette, and Todd Helmecki and Craig Reese, were the team's seniors. Violette led the attack, while Morell and Helmecki gave strength to the defense. Reese's promising season was shortened by a broken leg in late September.

The Redcoat Boys' Soccer team earned a berth in the State Championship for the first time in the team's brief history.

"I got it! I got it!"

"Come on baby, let's do the twist!"

Eric releases his frustrations.

1986 Berlin Girls' Soccer Team

Tammy and Tracy, racing for the spheroid.

The 1986 Redcoat Girl's Soccer team had an overall record of 8 wins and 8 losses, and placed 14th in the conference. The lady Redcoats made it to states, and pulled through the season with the support of Coach Sheila King and assistant Coach Janet DeMay. Seniors Patty Bittner, Michelle Boissoneau, Amy Jacobson, Stacy Squires and Captains Dawn Battaglia and Marcelle Poulin, who will be missed greatly, led the team on the Lady Redcoats' fight for victory during the season.

1986 Berlin Cross Country Team

Under coach Jim Keefe, the 1986 Boys' Cross Country team had an overall 6-8 season.

Captain Jeff Spiegel and "The Leg" gave the team enough motivation to qualify for the state meet held in Wickam Park. Even through rigorous training the team members maintained a sense of willingness to achieve under harsh environment.

Jeff Spiegel, Cris Ludco, Steve Ryba, Dzung Nguyen, Edward Sampt, William Stefanowicz, Dean Wotkiewich, and William Frank were the participants on this year's Cross Country team.

Coach Keefe exhorts.

"What do you mean, second place?!"

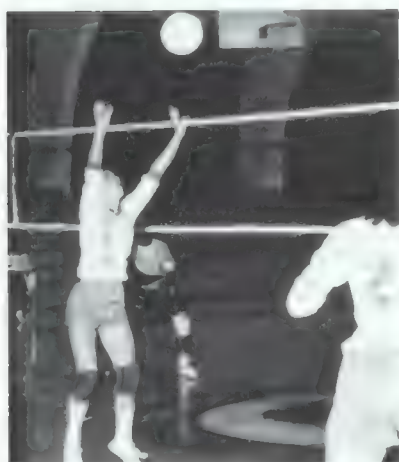

Steve Ryba sprints for the finish.

Spiegel in the lead!

The 1986 Volleyball Team

Michelle Cote jumps in the air for a spectacular set.

The 1986 Volleyball team had an outstanding season, finishing with a record of 17 wins and only 3 losses. The team went undefeated in the Northwest Conference for the second consecutive year and qualified for tournament play for the fourth time in five years. The squad, coached by Bob Tarigo, was led by tri-captains Marcia Basile, Patricia Gozzo, and Lynn Swanson, and backed up by seniors Michelle Bedard, Mary Jo DeGrandi, and Tracey Ravizza. Other outstanding players included junior setter Michelle Cote, and spiker Melissa Cote.

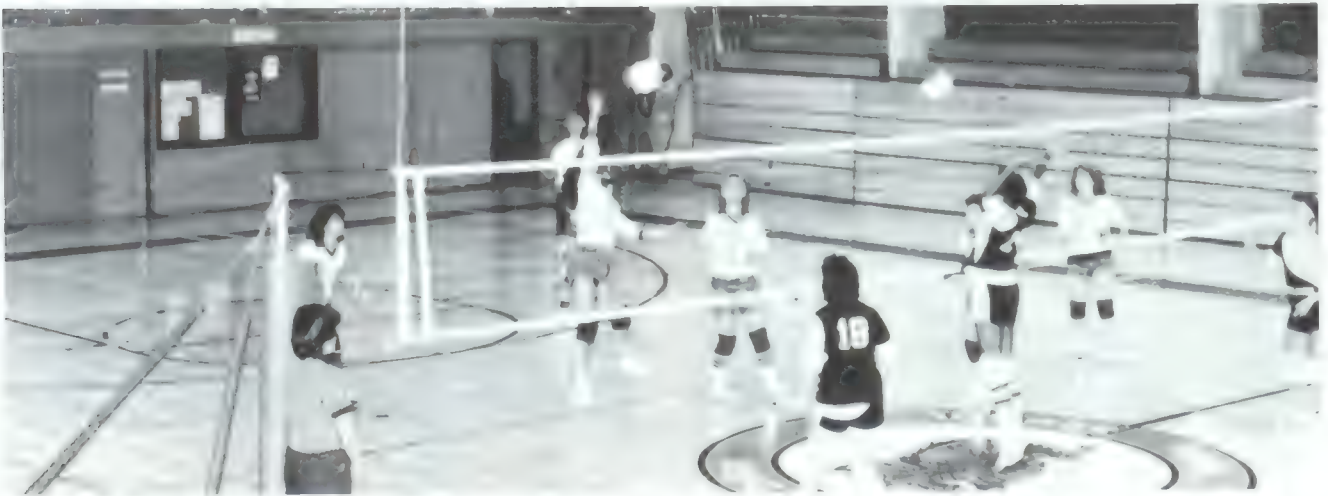

Coach Bob Tarigo encourages the team.

Marcia Basile goes up for yet another powerful spike.

1987 Berlin Redcoats Girls' Basketball Team

Seniors Anica Schultz and Stacy Squires

GIRLS' BASKETBALL

The winter of 1986-7 was a victorious one for the Lady Redcoats, who had played their way to a 14-4 overall mark, and a 10-2 N.W.C. mark by late February.

Coach George Hall's athletes translated long hours of practice into W's as captains Stacy Squires and Maria Krug led the way. Seniors Squires and Annica Schultz contributed experience. Other standouts included Debra Larson, who, at one time or another, led in each statistical category, as well as Robyn Trevethan, who finished the season as high scorer.

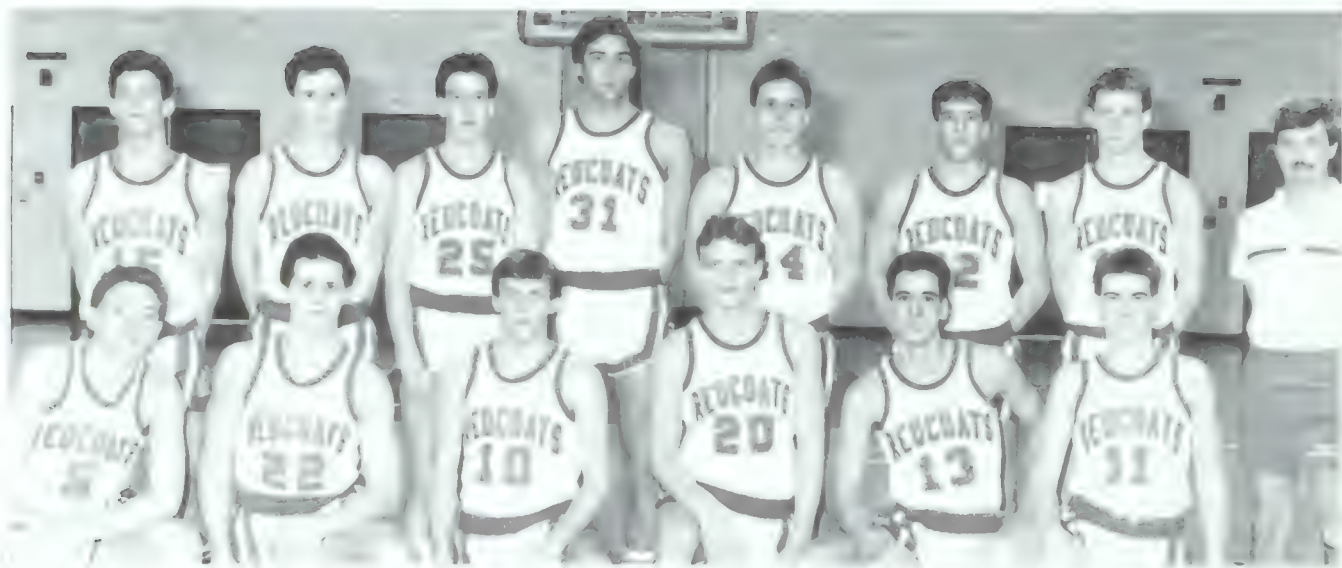

The team's success, despite injuries to Captain Krug, Tammy Borkowski and to Larson, was a testimony to all the players' hard work and cooperation throughout the season.

The 1987 Boys' Basketball Team

BOYS' BASKETBALL

Coach Ken Parciak had led his varsity squad to a very successful 13-3 overall record, and an 8-3 NWC mark by the yearbook's late February deadline.

Senior captains David Sirois' and Paul Violette's inspiring leadership sparked the veteran team, which also included seniors Ed Malley, Mark Bilosz and David Allison.

Season highlights included a ten game mid-season winning streak and consistent top ten ranking in The Hartford Courant's state-wide S Division poll.

WRESTLING

Wrestling team 1986-87

He's going down.

The 1986-87 wrestling Redcoats wrathfully writhed and wriggled while wrestling the N.W.C. crown from the league competition, and runner-up position from state-wide foes in the 'S' tournament.

Coached by Jim Day, and led by senior captains Rocky Urso, Rob Galas and Mike Armstrong, the grapplers once again this year dominated their opponents: achieving an overall mark of 21-1-1, and a conference mark of 3-0-0.

Individual conference champions included: Scott Boissoneau, 94 lbs.; Bob Ferrero, 121 lbs.; Pete Veleas, 134 lbs.; Rob Galas, 140 lbs.; Ken Perou, 147 lbs.; Rocky Urso, 157 lbs.; Mike Armstrong, 185 lbs.; and Bill Ogden in the heavyweight division. Boissoneau, Galas, Urso and Armstrong also earned championship recognition at the state 'S' meet.

A crew of returning veterans bodes even more success for the 1987-88 squad.

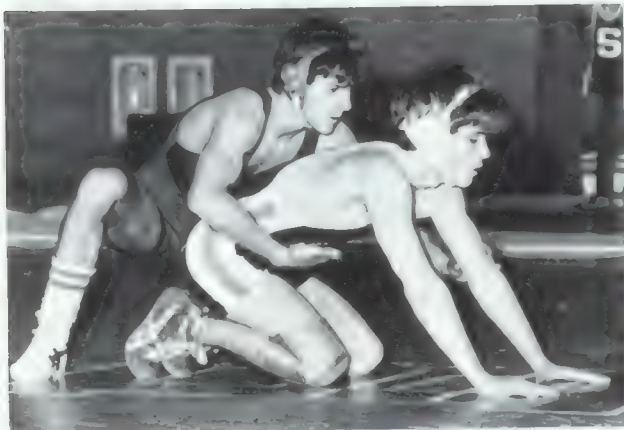

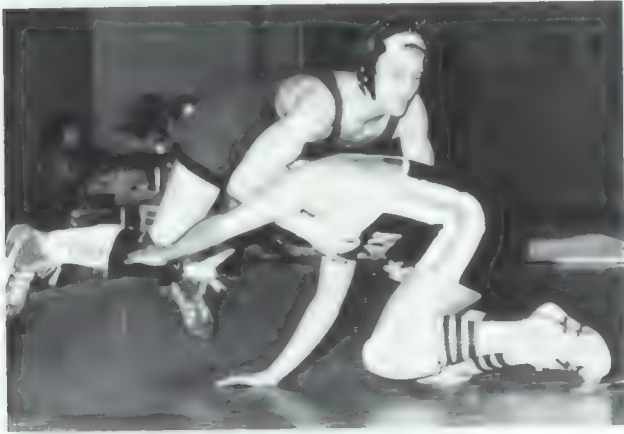

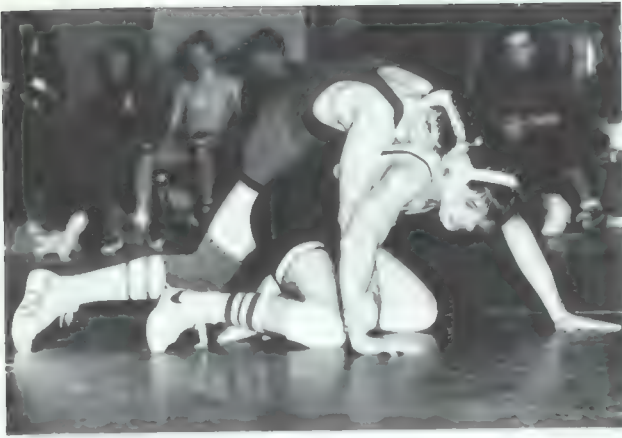

He thinks he's going to pin me.

The wrestling team takes a short break.

Coach Day gives Scott Boissoneau a reassuring pat on the shoulder.

1987 Berlin Gymnastics Team

Co-captain Kellie Tolomea executes a difficult move.

Gymnastics

Coach Donna Liljestrand's young squad had a banner year, seizing the N.W.C. championship over Farmington, the only other Northwest Conference team to field a team this season. Overall, the girls achieved a 6-8 record.

Captains Kellie Tolomea and Amy Swanson led the team, which included only two seniors — Kellie Tolomea and Tracy Michaud.

Allison Mosher and new recruit Rhonda King contributed as all-around competitors. Dale Rio stood out on the bars and in floor exercises. Allison Lubas excelled in vault and floor, Tracy Michaud contributed mightily on the bars.

By late February, the team had completed its regular season, and was aiming for a high score in the State Divisional Tournament.

Dale Rio displays style and grace.

1986 Berlin Golf Team

Phil chips one in from the apron.

The Berlin High School 1986 Golf team, coached by Don Bates, finished the season with an outstanding 26-4-4 record. The team won the 1986 Northwest Conference Championship, and had the third lowest score in the State Tournament. 1986-1987 senior Paul Veneziano was an All State selection and, along with 1985-1986 senior Tim Daddabbo, an All Conference selection. Paul also won the Individual Championship for the Northwest Conference. 1986-1987 seniors Phil Josephson and Paul Veneziano look forward to a great 1987 season.

Paul Veneziano holes out a tough putt.

Jon "Venz" strikes a mean five iron toward the green.

Jay Yuskis sends the ball flying.

1986 Berlin Baseball Team

Mike Giner takes a stand.

The Berlin Redcoat Baseball team finished the 1986 season with a solid 11-7 record. Players included designated hitter Mike Giner, competent pitcher Edward Malley, hitter Bill Petit, and leading batter Edward Rossy. The team competed in the State Tournament for the third consecutive year, and is looking forward to an excellent 1987 season.

The 1986 Boys Track and Field Team

The 1986 Boys' Track and Field team finished the season with a record of 8 wins and 9 losses. Coached by David Scannell and Assistant Coaches Sheila McCabe and Janet DeMay, the team was led by Co-Captains Bruce Greenhalgh and Greg Szczepanik and backed up by veteran performers Tom Walsh, Tom Lineen, Bill Pajor and Mark Cote. Outstanding performances were also given by 1986-1987 seniors Brian Coletti, Todd Helmecki, Chris McHale and Jeff Spiegel and by sophomores Sandor Dizes, Cory Talbot and Bret Geremia.

In the Northwest Conference Meet Greg Szczepanik won in the 1600 m and Bill Pajor won in the 5000 m races. Brian Coletti, Cory Talbot, Greg Szczepanik, Todd Helmecki and Chris McHale all qualified for the state "M" meet. The 1986 addition of vault and jump equipment helped the team immensely, and should continue to do so in the years ahead.

Senior members pose for a picture.

Greg waves to his teammates as he leaps over the hurdle.

B.T.C. Can do it!!!

1986 Berlin Girls' Track Team

The Berlin Girls' Track Team started its 1986 season with the pressure of defending its Northwest Conference title weighing upon it. Coached by Al Pelligrinelli and assisted by Sheila McCabe and Janet DeMay, the squad lost its first meet but rallied to win its next. Its final record of 9 wins and 4 losses speaks of the hard work and dedication put in by every member of the team. Countless hours of practicing paid off in the end, however, as the team clinched the Northwest Conference title for the second year in a row.

Led by co-captains Michelle Boissoneau and Donna Klapatch, other senior team members included Dawn Battaglia, Patty Bittner, Mary Cooley, Mary Jo DeGrandi, Kathy Gorski, Laura Jakubiec, Elizabeth Lewicki, Theresa Peck, Marcelle Poulin, Tracey Ravizza, and Krissi Summers.

Patty Bittner is ready to win.

1986 Berlin Boys' Tennis Team

Jason DeGroff gracefully swats the fuzzy ball.

The 1986 Berlin Boys' Tennis team served and volleyed to a 9 and 8 record, to seize at season's end second in the NWC tournament, and fourth in class M.

Rookie coach Rex Smith, and captain Chris Torosian led the squad, which included '87 seniors Abe Kazanjian, Charlie Blake, and short-timer Dean Faucher.

Individual stars were: Chris Torosian, who earned second in the conference tournament; Scott Trevethan, who won more consistently than any other player; and the doubles team of Abe Kazanjian and Jason DeGroff, who qualified for state open play.

"This had better go over!"

Awesome Abe sends the ball flying.

Coach Smith wonders if the team will ever get to practice.

The 1986 Girls' Tennis Team

Katie Criniti eyes the ball intensely.

Ann Hodgson wishes she was at the beach.

1986 was a fabulous year for the Girls' Tennis team. Guided by Coach George Hall, the team earned second place in the 1986 Northwest Conference. The number one seeded player, Laurie Giandomenico, received the Coaches Award, was a semi-finalist in the Northwest Conference, and was a Northwest Conference All-Star. Katie Criniti, the number two seeded player, won the championship, along with Scott Trevethan, in the Northwest Conference Mixed Doubles. She was also a semi-finalist in the second round of the State Championships. Jennifer Bertagna and Elke Ruepp were finalists in the Quarter Finals of the Northwest Conference Championships, in Doubles. 1986-1987 seniors Jennifer Bertagna and Laurie Giandomenico are prepared for an excellent 1987 season.

Cathy Zigmund demonstrates perfect form.

Laurie Giandomenico awaits the ball's return.

"What do you mean it's out of bounds?!"

The 1986 State Champion Girls' Softball Team

Stacy shows off excellent form.

The 1986 edition of Berlin Softball took it all — becoming the first Berlin High girls' team to capture a state championship in any sport. The Lady Redcoats stormed through a 23-1 season, having lost a total of only two games in that many years. Captains Kim Stanowski and Pam Wallace led the team. Individual honors were won by Pam Wallace who achieved a national record for most home runs as well as RBI's. 1987 seniors include Michelle Bedard, Stacy Squires, and Jill Quarello. Coach Ken Parciak and Assistant Rick Hanbury are very proud of their team's achievements.

Michelle eyes the plate with concentration.

Debbie is always ready for the pitch.

Kerri McCormack prepares to steal second base.

"SAFE!!!"

The pressure is on the batter.

Robyn hurls in another perfect pitch.

Deb tosses the ball around to warm up.

Tammi awaits the next play.

Teammates look on in anticipation.

Coach Parciak has done a fine job.

Goodbye Could Be Forever

Once in our lives
We find people who
We share all the good times
And the bad times too
We live every moment
The best that we can
Hoping for something
We might never have

We've made mistakes
along the way
Expecting too much
From friends we've made
Through laughter, through tears
We've been through them all
Learning good friendships
Go on and on
The times has come
To leave at last
Still keeping the memories
Always remembering the past
We'll save those thoughts
Forgetting them never Knowing...
Goodbye could be forever

The curtain is drawn
The stage is set
The last chapter has gone
With no regrets
Let's turn the page
Open up a new door
To a future in which
Great expectations are born

CLASS ADVISOR

Mr. Smith

Homecoming

Dedication: Mr. Smith

The "LAMP" Staff and the Class of 1987 would like to extend our deepest gratitude to you, Mr. Smith, for your never ending dedication to Berlin High School, and most of all to our class. In the last four years you have managed to better us as a group and as individuals. You instilled a certain confidence in our hearts, and with this grew a pride in being a part of our class. You brought us together — created a family — and every senior is a member.

We know that it is not much, but the highest form of praise that we could think of to bestow upon you is the dedication of our yearbook — the collection of memories which will always be with us — to you.

No matter how much we write, it is impossible for us to put into words exactly how we feel about you, so we hope that you will accept this token of our appreciation and respect. We believe that the words to the song "The Greatest Love of All" by Whitney Houston best describe the principles that you have been trying to teach us over the past four years:

"I believe the children are our future —
Teach them well and let them lead the way.
Show them all the beauty they possess inside.
Give them a sense of pride to make it easier.
Let the children's laughter remind us how we Used to be."

You have taught us well, Mr. Smith — not only lessons of math and history, but lessons of hope, of friendship, of love, and most of all, of life.

God bless you —
The Class of 1987

We arrived, a group of frightened kids,
Entering this big new school.
You were given the title "Advisor"
To help us learn the rules.

Trying to get over
Our thoughts of being scared,
You helped make it easy
By showing that you cared.

Through every small crisis
You'd show us the way —
You'd give us your guidance
In what you'd do and say.

As we grew older,
You helped us to mature.
In our studies and in life
We came to learn so much more.

You brought our class together
As a family, as one.
We were the planets
And you were our sun.

And now, four years later
We're ready to go,
Prepared for the future
With all that we know.

We'd really like to thank you
From the bottom of our hearts
We're prouder and more confident
Than we were at the start.

So "Good-bye," Mr. Smith,
Or rather, "Til we meet again."
You'll no longer be our teacher,
But you'll always be our friend.

— Mary Jo De Grandi

The Battle of Life

In the battle of life it is not the critic who counts; not the man who points out how the strong man stumbled, or where the doer of a deed could have done better. The credit belongs to the man who is actually in the arena; whose face is marred by dust and sweat and blood; who strives valiantly; who errs and comes short again and again because there is no effort without error and shortcoming; who does actually strive to do the deeds; who knows the great enthusiasms, the great devotions, spends himself in a worthy cause; who at the best knows in the end the triumph of high achievement; and who at the worst, if he fails, at least fails while daring greatly, so that his place shall never be with those cold and timid souls who have tasted neither victory nor defeat.

In The Course of Time

The feeling
Of time rushing past so quickly, too quickly!
Many friends will soon leave to go out on their own,
Bringing closer thoughts of my future
Senior year rushes to meet me, College just around us.

I feel
As if I'm sprinting through the days out of breath, wanting to slow the pace
Slow the minutes to hours, scared of what will come,
The changes I may not like.

I wish . . .
For everyone and everything to remain the same,
To keep the closeness and affection of my friends,
For time to stand still
If not, then for life to be as good as now

On the Fear of Death

Let me not pray to be sheltered from dangers but to be fearless in facing them.

Let me not beg for the stilling of my pain but for the heart to conquer it.

Let me not look for allies in life's battlefield but to my own strength.

Let me not crave in anxious fear to be saved but hope for the patience to win my freedom.

Grant me that I may not be a coward, feeling your mercy in my success alone; but let me find the grasp of your hand in my failure.

"There is no sun without shadow, and it is essential to know the night. The absurd man says yes and his effort will henceforth be unceasing. At that subtle moment when man glances backward over his life, . . . he contemplates that series of unrelated actions which become his fate, created by him, combined under his memory's eye and soon sealed by his death. Thus, . . . a blind man eager to see who knows that the night has no end, he is still on the go. The rock is still rolling."

Wonderful Tonite

It's late in the evening she's wonderin' what clothes to wear she puts on her make-up and brushes her long blonde hair and then she asks me "Do I look all right" and I say yes you look wonderful tonite

We go to a party and everyone turns to see this beautiful lady who's walkin' around with me and then she asks me "Do you feel all right" and I say yes I feel wonderful tonite

I feel wonderful because I see the limelight in your eyes and the wonder of it all is that you just don't realize how much I love you

It's time to go home now and I've got an aching head
So I give her the car keys and she helps me to be bed and then I tell her as I turn out the light I say my darlin' you were wonderful tonite
Oh my darlin' you were wonderful tonite

The phantoms surround myself

Some good some bad

Oh, how the time passes

Some fast some slow

The voices and thoughts

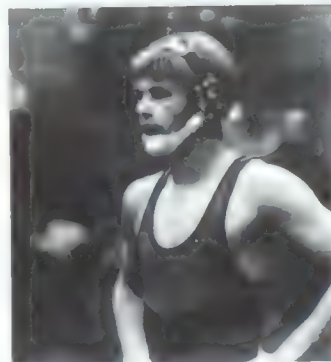

Some loud some soft

The achievements and success

Some great some small

I pause and glance back wondering,

How long my echoes will remain.

Cause it will not last forever
These are the days to hold on to Cause we won't
Although we'll want to

Sometimes it's so easy

To let a day

Slip on by

Without even seeing each other at all

But this is the time you'll turn back to

And so will I

And those will be the days

You can never recall

You've given me the best of you
And now I need the rest of you

Sometimes . . .
 I watch the sun come up
 And realize that I have another day
 Sometimes . . .
 I watch the sun go down and realize that I am another day older a day wiser, and a step closer to my dreams Someday . . .
 I will reflect on these times;
 Glad that I wondered, glad that I took the time to feel
 For every great accomplishment starts with a glimmer of hope and a small dream dreamt.

Remember

This is not the end
 Merely the road's bend.
 Memories left to die,
 Start with the word good-bye.
 Never shall I bid ado,
 Lest in grief forget you.
 A step through the mist,
 Is a day sun-kissed.
 Come not the course sands,
 Which breaks golden bands.
 Bide awhile with me,
 Shed a tear with me . . .
 . . . Please remember me . . .

I have never objected to silence.
 Solitude allows you to reminisce.
 I think of the numerous discussions
 That incurred many revelations.
 Wit and Wisdom contained in your esse
 Alongside compassion and fieriness.
 You never stop caring for a friend —
 A caring touch or smile you quickly send.
 Now to a higher class you aspire;
 Your silken cord is tied to a new pier.

"You are so young, so before all beginning, and I want to beg to you, as much as I can, dear sir, to be patient toward all that is unsolved in your heart and try to love the questions themselves like locked rooms and like books that are written in a very foreign tongue. Do not seek the answers, which cannot be given to you because you would not be able to live with them. And the point is to live everything. Live the questions now."

Before we say good-bye take just one last look. A glance of all the effort, all the years that it took. Strange, we may not recognize the child we once were. How much we've changed since we arrived, more wise, more strong, more sure. Not only do we leave this place, but we must leave each other, too. And this may be the saddest thing that we should ever do. And now we go our separate ways to search for love and wealth. I wish my friends much happiness, good fortune and good health. Now one last look, one last glance. One last whisper to the wind. We close our eyes and say good-bye, for a new journey soon begins.

Aim So High You'll Never Be Bored

The greatest waste of our natural resources is the number of people who never achieve their potential. Get out of that slow lane. Shift into that fast lane. If you think you can, There's a good chance you will. Even making the effort will make you feel like a new person. Reputations are made by searching for things that can't be done and doing them. Aim low: boring. Aim high: soaring.

"Some people, when they have taken too much and have been driven beyond the point of endurance, simply crumple and give up. There are others, though they are not many, who will for some reason always be unconquerable. You meet them in time of war and also in time of peace. They have an indomitable spirit and nothing, neither pain nor torture nor threat of death, will cause them to give up.

Little Peter Watson was one of these. And as he fought and scrambled to prevent himself from falling out of the top of that tree, it came to him suddenly that he was going to win. He looked up and saw a light shining over the waters of the lake that was of such brilliance and beauty he was unable to look away from it. The light was beckoning him, drawing him on, and he dived toward the light and spread his wings."

NOBODY KNOWS BUT ME

A long time ago on a cold dark night, someone was killed 'neath the Town Hall light. There were few at the scene, but they all agreed that the slayer who ran looked a lot like me. Nobody knows, nobody sees, nobody knows but me. The judge said "Son what is your alibi? If you were somewhere else then you won't have to die." I spoke not a word though it meant my life. The Peace of Wild Things

When despair for the world grows in me and I wake in the night at the least sound in fear of what my life and my children's lives may be,
I go and lie down where the wood drake
Rests in his beauty on the water, and the great heron feeds.
I come into the peace of wild things
Who do not tax their lives with forethought
Of grief. I come into the presence of still water.
And I feel above me the day — blind stars
Waiting with their light. For a time
I rest in the grace of the world, and am free.

Wishing for the day when I first wore this suit.

Baby has grown older, Its no longer cute. Too many voices, they've made me mute Baby has grown ugly, Its no longer cute.

But I stay on, I stay on, where do I get off? On to greener pastures, the core has gotten soft

Look at us today, we've grown soft and fat waiting for the moment-its just not coming back

So serious about the stuff we lack, dwell upon our memories but there are no facts.

Colder thy kiss;
Truly that hour foretold
Sorrow to this.

GOOD LUCK CLASS OF '87

We spent four years at Berlin High School and alot has happened since freshman year.

We met new people, made new friends, and had lots of fun together.

We attended the pep rallies, sports events, dances, and motorcades.

We all have fond memories of Junior Prom and Senior Ball.

We did so much in this four year time span

We can't list everything now.

But we know that these memories will be with us forever and ever. And since graduation has come sooner than we anticipated, It's time to move on to college and face a whole new world with new experiences. Let's just keep in touch with each other forever Until we see each other again at the high school reunions in the future. Take care of yourself and good luck in all that you do in the upcoming years.

Some people say it as easily
As anything I've ever heard
But someday I hope, that they will learn
Love is more than a word.

You give of that
Which you have to give
We learned to laugh
We learned to live
In my life
Whatever it may be
I'll never forget
What you give to me.

SURPRISES

Don't get excited. Don't say a word
Nobody noticed. Nothing was heard.
It was committed discreetly.

It was handled so neatly.

And it shouldn't surprise you at all,
You know.

Break all the records. Burn the cassettes.

I'd be lying if I told you

That I had no regrets.

There were so many mistakes

And what a difference it makes.

But still it shouldn't surprise you at all.

You know.

Don't look now, but, you have changed.

Your best friends wouldn't tell you.

Now it's apparent. Now it's a fact.

So marshal your forces for another attack.

You were so young and naive.

I know it's hard to believe.

But now it shouldn't surprise you at all,

You know.

What has it cost you? What have you won?

The sins of the fathers are the sins of the sons.

It was always within you. It will always continue.

And it shouldn't surprise you at all,

You know.

"We shall not cease from exploration, and the end of all our exploring will be to arrive where we started and know the place for the first time." T. S. Eliot

"A picture postcard, a folded stub,
A program of the play,
File away the photographs
Of your holiday.

And your moments

will turn to dust.

But that's the price you pay.

For every year is a souvenir

that slowly fades away.

Every year is a souvenir

that slowly fades away . . ."

— "Souvenir" by Billy Joel

"Our problems are man-made, therefore they may be resolved by man. And man can be as big as he wants. No problem of human destiny is beyond human beings."

Berlin High School
Class of Nineteen Hundred
Eighty Seven

A DAY IN THE LIFE OF BERTHA BERLIN, EVERYBODY'S FAVORITE SENIOR . . .

Cruisin' down Farmington Avenue in her new Porsche, Bertha switches on 95.7 FM, for some tunes by Van Halen and Journey, her favorite groups. Bertha's in luck, because the DJ's next selections include cuts from Janet Jackson's "Control" album, and songs by Bill Joel, Phil Collins, and Madonna, all her favorites. Finally, "Twist and Shout" blares from Bertha's Pioneer speakers, which sets off her favorite fantasy, in which she and Tom Cruise spend a romantic day at Rocky Neck, followed by pizza for two, followed by . . .

Bertha is startled out of her daydream by the dulcet tones of Mr. Smith, her favorite teacher. He asks if she had caught "The Cosby Show" or "Moonlighting" that week. Bertha answers in the negative, but she did manage to see "The Breakfast Club" on HBO before leaving for dinner at Brown Thompson's Friday night.

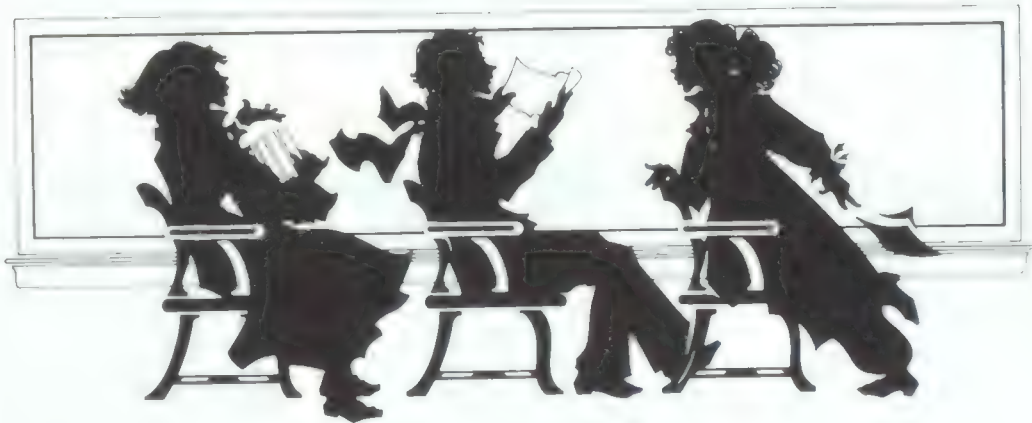

After bidding Mr. Smith a fond farewell, Bertha wheels into McDonald's, where the talk is about Eddie Murphy's latest film which, even though it doesn't include Cybill Shepherd, is a class favorite.

As she waits in line for her 'Mac and fries, Bertha ponders, not for the first time, just how much her life resembles an episode of "The Guiding Light."

This opportunity must be taken to thank the businesses in the Berlin community. Without their continued support the yearbook could not be such a big success. And a special thanks to all the parents who contributed to the publication of the 1987 LAMP.

THANK YOU

In the creating of the 1987 LAMP, the time and dedication of our Literary Advisor, Mr. Scannell, and Business Advisor, Mr. Pasco, has been invaluable. The yearbook could not have been completed with such immense success without their guidance. We would like to extend our deepest and sincerest gratitude for all of their help throughout the year; it has been greatly appreciated.

The 1987 LAMP staff

Mr. David Scannell

Mr. David Pasco

LAMP

This book is the result of cooperative effort by many people. The seniors contributed by assembling and submitting their senior pages material on time (mostly). School administration and teachers helped by altering schedules and arranging picture taking sessions, and by providing write-ups when asked.

Mr. Smith and his class officers provided enthusiasm. Mr. Horrigan came up with many of the pictures which appear on these pages. Mrs. Trider's typing classes cheerfully transformed over 200 handwritten write-ups into the neat copy on this book's senior section. Mrs. Belomyzy somehow kept track of the Lamp's accounts and secured the book's solvency. Advertising supporters from the Berlin community provided the capital to achieve that solvency.

Mr. Scannell literarily advised, as did Mr. Pasco in matters economical.
